Re: STB Docket AB-1076X, Caddo Valley Railroad Company-Abandonment Exemption-In Clark, Pike and

STB Docket AB-1076 (Sub-No.1X), Caddo Valley
Railroad Company-Abandonment Exemption-In Pike and Clark Counties, Arkansas

Dear Ms. Brown,

On February 18, West Central Arkansas Planning and Development District ("WCPDD") was allowed to reply to my opposition and comments and I wish to respond to Mr. Sippel's (attorney for WCPDD) comments

- 1 I concede that West Central Arkansas Planning and Development District ("WCPDD") receives a huge amount of both State and Federal money; therefore filing fees and legal fees are not a problem for them
- 2 I apologize if I misread the "Audited Financial Statements" and/or Accountant's Report and Financial Statements" (public information) and interpreted the "Contracts to Administer Grants" and other "Agreements"

Ms. Cynthia T. Brown
February 19, 2013

as a billable service; my mistake (These reports are too long to include in their entirety, I have enclosed page 10 of the "Notes to Financial Statements-June 30, 2009" along with the cover pages identifying the CPA firm and pages 4 and 5 and 11 labeled as Exhibit 1. The entire report can be found at legaudit.state.ar.us)

3. I concede that the WCAPDD is governed by the local elected officials. I believe that was shown by the newspaper article I included with my first filing (ref # 233786 entered into record on STB dated February 12, 2013)
4. I agree that the Board's role is ministerial as I understand the meaning. "TheOnlineDictionary" describes ministerial "as not involving discretion or policy making" That is why I asked for disallowance of the NITU. According to the STB's instructions for filing NITU, as shown in the "Overview, Abandonment and Alternatives to Abandonment" the NITU must be filed timely. The Board (STB) stated the filing deadline was December 6, 2011 The law doesn't offer leniency for misunderstanding or lack of knowledge
5. If the Board will reference back to my original filing (ref #233786 entered into record on STB dated February 12, 2013), I opposed the "Late Filing" of the NITU I also stated that CVRR could not sell the land as it did not own it I never mentioned the "Trails Act" I am familiar with many cases concerning the "Rails to Trails" issues and the 5th Amendment however, I wish only to retain my land.
6. Agriculture accounts for 256,244 jobs or 1 out of every 6 jobs in Arkansas according to the University of Arkansas Division of Agriculture. Arkansas's agriculture accounts for 10.81% of the Gross Domestic Product (GDP) Arkansas which is ahead of Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Oklahoma, Tennessee and Texas. The national average is 5.56%. The timber industry is the largest single employer in South Arkansas. I have spoken to the Hancock Management Group located in Hope, Arkansas who manages Weyerhaeuser timber lands, and a representative of Potlatch Timberlands in the area, both expressed their concerns as the ROW passes thru some of their lands. There has been some very costly damage due to wildfires in Clark County.

The Honorable Cynthia T Brown

6. The land underlying the former ROW would not lie idle. It would be used to grow cattle, grow hay, or grow timber. I mentioned the drought that has occurred the past two years. An article by Dr. Tom Troxel of the University of Arkansas stated last week as printed in the "Glenwood Herald", the US inventory of all cattle and calves including dairy was the lowest level since 1952. He went on to say that the 2012 calf crop was the smallest since 1949. I would think that preserving and promoting farm and timber land would be a great economic value
7. I identified myself as a landowner along the line in item 4 under Issue 2 of my filing entered into record on February 19, 2013 on STB (ref #233786). I surmised it would be assumed that someone wishing to exercise "reversionary rights" would naturally be a landowner. I had no intentions of confusing anyone. I plainly stated that I was a famer and small business owner.

I hereby certify that a copy of this letter has been served upon CVRR by first class metered mail this 20th day of February, 2013. (Letter was finished too late to meter on the 19th)

Respectfully submitted,

Betty Pennington
